DECLARATION OF TRUST

DECLARATION OF TRUST, made as of this day of May, 2002, among Richard W. Thew, having an address at 195 Thew Road, LaGrangeville, New York 12540, as grantor (hereinafter referred to as the "Grantor"), and Larry Thew, having an address at Thew Road, LaGrangeville, NY 12540, and John Thew, having an address at Thew Road, LaGrangeville, NY 12540, as trustees (collectively hereinafter referred to as the "Trustees").

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the Grantor's wife has predeceased the Grantor.

WHEREAS, the Grantor desires to create an irrevocable trust of the life insurance policies and other property described in Schedule A hereto, together with such monies, securities and other assets as the Trustees hereafter may hold or acquire hereunder (said life insurance policies and other property, monies, securities and other assets, together with any additions thereto received pursuant to the Grantor's last will and testament or as the proceeds of insurance on the Grantor's life, or otherwise, being hereinafter referred to as the "trust estate"), for the purposes and upon the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the covenants herein contained and other valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which hereby are acknowledged, the Grantor hereby irrevocably transfers, assigns and delivers to the Trustees as and for the trust estate the property more particularly described in Schedule A hereto, to hold the same, and any other property which the Trustees hereafter may acquire, IN TRUST, for the purposes and upon the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth:

ARTICLE FIRST

Payments During Life of Grantor

The Trustees shall hold, manage, invest and reinvest the trust estate, shall collect the income therefrom, and shall pay the net income to or for the benefit of the Grantor, in convenient installments but at least quarter-annually, during the life of the Grantor. In addition, the Trustees, at any time and from time to time, in their absolute discretion, may pay to or for the benefit of the Grantor, for the health, education, maintenance or support of the Grantor, any part or all of the principal of the trust estate.

ARTICLE SECOND

Successor Beneficiaries

Upon the death of the Grantor, the Trustees shall pay the interest and income of the trust estate to the Trustees, Larry Thew and John Thew, in two equal shares, for their benefit and the benefit of their issue. The trust estate shall be paid and distributed to such persons and in such proportions to each said issue after attaining the age of 21 years of age and before the age of 30 years of age as the parent Trustee deems in the best interest of his issue.

ARTICLE THIRD

Distributions To Minors Or Incompetents

In any case in which the Trustees are authorized or directed by any provision of this Agreement to pay or distribute income or principal to any person who shall be a minor or incompetent, the Trustees, in their absolute discretion and without authorization of any court, may pay or distribute the whole or any part of such income or principal to such minor or incompetent personally, or may apply the whole or any part thereof directly to the health, education, maintenance or support of such minor or incompetent, or may pay or distribute the whole or any part thereof to the guardian, committee, conservator or other legal representative, wherever appointed, of such minor or incompetent or to the person with whom such minor or incompetent may from time to time reside, or in the case of a minor, may pay or distribute the whole or any part thereof to a custodian for such minor under any gifts to minors or transfers to minors act. Evidence of such payment or distribution or the receipt therefor by the person to whom any such payment or distribution is made shall be a full discharge of the Trustees from all liability with respect thereto, even though the Trustees may be such person.

The Trustees, in their absolute discretion, may defer payment or distribution of any or all income or principal to which a minor may be entitled until such minor shall attain the age of twenty-one (21) years, or to make such payment or distribution at any time and from time to time, during the minority of such minor, holding the whole or the undistributed portion thereof as a separate fund vested in such minor but subject to the power in trust hereby given to the Trustees to administer and invest such fund and to use the income or principal thereof for the benefit of such minor as if such fund were held in trust hereunder. No bond or other security and no periodic accounts shall be required with respect to such fund, and the same shall be subject to commission as if it were a separate trust fund. The Trustees shall pay and distribute any balance of such fund to such minor when such minor shall attain the age of twenty-one (21) years. Except as is herein above provided, if such minor shall die before attaining the age of twenty-one (21) years, the Trustees shall pay and distribute such balance to the executors, administrators or legal representatives of the estate of such minor.

The word "minor", wherever used in this Article THIRD, shall mean any person who has not attained the age of twenty-one (21) years.

ARTICLE FOURTH

Life Insurance Policies

With respect to any insurance policies payable to the Trustees, the Trustees, upon being advised that any sum is so payable by reason of the death of the Grantor, shall endeavor to collect the same, and may bring a suit or action therefor, or may compromise, adjust, settle or submit to arbitration any claims therefor. The Trustees shall be entitled to reimbursement from the trust estate for expenses incurred by the Trustees in collecting or attempting to collect any such sum by suit, action or otherwise. The Trustees, however, shall be under no duty to bring a suit or action unless the expenses of the Trustees, including attorneys' fees, shall have been advanced or guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Trustees. The Trustees may repay, out of the trust estate, any advances made by the Trustees or reimburse the Trustees for expenses incurred in collecting or attempting to collect any sum as aforesaid.

The Trustees in no case shall be under any duty or obligation to make any claim against the Grantor's estate, or take any action against the executors, administrators or legal representatives of the Grantor's estate, for reimbursement for any reduction of the sums payable upon the death of the Grantor by reason of unpaid premiums or for any other cause, including any loans and interest thereto secured by any insurance policies.

During the life of the Grantor, the Trustees may, in their discretion, apply the net income or principal of the trust estate to the payment of premiums on any life insurance policy of which the Trustees or any trust hereunder is beneficiary. If the net income and principal is insufficient to pay such premiums, the Trustees may notify the Grantor and the beneficiaries of the trust of such insufficiency and give them the opportunity to furnish the necessary funds. If neither the Grantor nor any of the beneficiaries furnishes the funds necessary to pay the premiums, the Trustees may, but shall not be obligated to, obtain the funds required to pay such premiums by selling a portion of the principal of the trust estate, by borrowing on the security of such principal, by borrowing against the cash surrender value of the policy or by surrendering some policies and using the proceeds to pay the premiums on other policies. The Trustees also is authorized to convert such policies to paid-up or extended term insurance if the trust estate does not have the necessary funds to pay the premiums. If no funds are available for the payment of the premiums of any insurance policy, the Trustees may assign ownership of such policy to the then living issue of the Grantor.

The Trustees is vested with all right, title and interest in and to said insurance policies, and is authorized to exercise all of the options, benefits, rights and privileges thereunder, including those which may arise during the Grantor's life or relate to non-payment of premiums.

corporation, and rights to subscribe to securities or rights other than cash declared or issued by a corporation, shall be dealt with as principal. The proceeds from the sale, redemption or other disposition, whether at a profit or loss, and regardless of the tax treatment thereof, of any property constituting principal, shall normally be dealt with as principal, but the Trustees may allocate a portion of any such proceeds to income if the property disposed of produced no income or substantially less than the current rate of return on trust investments, or if the Trustees shall deem such action advisable for any other reason. The Trustees may (but are not directed to) allocate receipts and disbursements between income and principal in accordance with the New York Estates, Powers and Trusts Law, as amended and in effect from time to time. The preceding provisions of this paragraph shall not be deemed to authorize any act by the Trustees which may be a violation of any law prohibiting the accumulation of income.

No person who deals with any Trustee hereunder shall be bound to see to the application of any asset delivered to such Trustee or to inquire into the authority for, or propriety of, any action taken or not taken by such Trustee. This Agreement, however, shall not be construed to permit any person to deal with the trust estate for less than adequate consideration, to borrow without adequate interest or adequate security, to exercise any power of administration in a nonfiduciary capacity, or otherwise to act in such manner as to cause the Grantor to be treated as the owner of the trust estate or any part thereof.

No Trustee shall be liable for acts or omissions in administering the trust estate or any trust created by this Agreement, except for that Trustee's own actual fraud, gross negligence or willful misconduct. If any Trustee becomes liable as Trustee to any other person who is not a beneficiary in connection with any matter not within the Trustee's control and not due to the Trustee's actual fraud, gross negligence or willful misconduct, such Trustee shall be fully indemnified and held harmless by the trust estate and any trust created hereunder giving rise to such liability, as the case may be, against and in respect of any damages that such Trustee may sustain, including without limitation attorneys' fees.

The Trustees are authorized, but not required, to accept any property transferred to the Trustees by any person during such person's lifetime or by such person's last will and testament. Any property so transferred to, and accepted by, the Trustees shall become a part of such trust or trusts created by this Agreement as such person shall direct and may be commingled with the other property in the trust or trusts to which such property has been added and shall be held, administered and disposed of as a part of such trust or trusts.

ARTICLE SEVENTH

Appointment of Trustees

The Grantor hereby appoints Larry Thew and John Thew as joint Trustees hereunder.

If either of the Trustees for any reason shall fail or cease to act as Trustee, the other Trustee, at any time after qualifying to act as Trustee, shall have the right to serve as sole Trustee hereunder, without appointment of a successor co-Trustee.

Either Trustee, at any time and from time to time, by instrument in writing signed and acknowledged, may delegate any or all of the rights, powers, duties, authority and privileges, whether or not discretionary, provided herein, to any other Trustee for such period or periods of time as may be designated in such written instrument; provided, however, that any such instrument shall be revocable at any time. Where a signature is required in order to exercise any powers conferred on the Trustees hereunder or by applicable law, the signature of any one Trustee may be relied upon by any third party as sufficient and binding.

The Trustees shall have the right to resign at any time by giving written notice to the then income beneficiaries of each trust created hereby, or if none of the income beneficiaries of a trust are sui juris, to the persons sui juris who would be entitled to a share of the principal of such trust if it were then to terminate. If upon such resignation no Trustee remains in office, such resignation shall not be effective until the Grantor, or if the Grantor is unable to do so, a court of competent jurisdiction, has appointed a successor Trustee. The expenses of the accounting of a resigning Trustee shall be a proper charge against such trust.

The Grantor shall never serve as trustee hereunder.

The term "Trustees" wherever used herein shall mean the trustee or trustees in office from time to time. Any such trustee shall have the same rights, powers, duties, authority and privileges, whether or not discretionary, as if originally appointed hereunder.

No bond, surety or other security shall be required of any Trustee acting hereunder for the faithful performance of the duties of Trustee, notwithstanding any law of any State or other jurisdiction to the contrary.

ARTICLE EIGHTH

Decisions of Trustees Are Conclusive

The determination of the Trustees in respect of the amount of any discretionary payment of income or principal from any trust established hereunder, and of the advisability thereof, shall be final and conclusive on all persons, whether or not then in being, having or claiming any interest in such trust, and upon making any such payment, the Trustees shall be released fully from all further liability or accountability therefor.

The right of any beneficiary to any payment of income or principal shall in every case be subject to any charge or deduction which the Trustees may make against the same under the authority granted to the Trustees by any law or by this Agreement.

ARTICLE NINTH

Simultaneous Death

If any beneficiary under this Agreement shall die simultaneously with any other person upon whose death such beneficiary shall become entitled to receive either income or principal under this Agreement, or in such circumstances as to render it difficult or impracticable to determine who predeceased the other, then for purposes of this Agreement such beneficiary shall be deemed to have predeceased such other person. The provisions of this Agreement shall be construed as aforesaid, notwithstanding the provisions of any applicable law establishing a different presumption of order of death or providing for survivorship for a fixed period as a condition of inheritance of property.

ARTICLE TENTH

Rights of Beneficiaries Are Not Assignable

No disposition, charge or encumbrance on the income or principal of any trust established hereunder shall be valid or binding upon the Trustees. No beneficiary shall have any right, power or authority to assign, transfer, encumber or otherwise dispose of such income or principal or any part thereof until the same shall be paid to such beneficiary by the Trustees. No income or principal shall be subject in any manner to any claim of any creditor of any beneficiary or liable to attachment, execution or other process of law prior to its actual receipt by the beneficiary.

ARTICLE ELEVENTH

Construction

The validity and construction of this Agreement and the trusts created hereunder shall be governed by the laws of the State of New York.

Any provision herein which refers to a statute, rule, regulation or other specific legal reference which is no longer in effect at the time said provision is to be applied shall be deemed to refer to the successor, replacement or amendment to such statute, rule, regulation or other reference, if any, and shall be interpreted in such a manner so as to carry out the original intent of said provision.

Wherever used in this Agreement and the context so requires, the masculine shall include the feminine and the singular shall include the plural, and vice versa.

The captions in this Agreement are for convenience of reference, and they shall not be considered when construing this Agreement.

If under any of the provisions of this Agreement any portion of the trust estate would be held in trust beyond a date twenty-one years after the death of the last survivor of the Grantor and the issue of the Grantor and other beneficiaries hereunder now in being, or such later date permitted by the rule against perpetuities applicable in the State of New York; then, upon such date, the trust of such portion shall terminate and the principal, and any unpaid income thereof, shall be paid and distributed to the person or persons then living who would have been entitled to receive the income therefrom had the trust continued, in the proportions to which they would have been so entitled.

ARTICLE TWELFTH

Binding Effect

This Agreement shall extend to and be binding upon the heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns of the undersigned Grantor and upon the Trustees acting hereunder.
